DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3, 7-12, 15, 18-20, 26-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being obvious over Pataille in view of Park (7,022,769).

The applied reference has a common assignee and one inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art only under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) might be overcome by: (1) a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not an invention "by another"; (2) a showing of a date of invention for the claimed subject matter of the application which corresponds to subject matter disclosed but not claimed in the reference, prior to the effective U.S. filing date of the reference under 37 CFR 1.131; or (3) an oath or declaration under 37 CFR 1.130 stating that the application and reference are currently owned by the same party and that the inventor named in the application is the prior inventor under 35 U.S.C. 104, together with a terminal disclaimer in accordance with 37 CFR 1.321(c). This rejection might also be overcome by showing that the reference is disqualified under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) as prior art in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a). See MPEP § 706.02(l)(1) and § 706.02(l)(2).

Pataille discloses a seal assembly comprising a ring radially extending to slidably engage a shaft. The seal has a length greater than the thickness and has a flat bearing surface in that segment 3 is flat with a spiral groove. Pataille does not appear to disclose the material having the claimed properties. Park teaches an improved sealing material that exhibits desirable properties for a wide range of environments. Park teaches the material has the claimed Shore A hardness, tensile strength, modulus, and elongation at break (col. 2, lines 55-67). The material is a non-continuous phase vulcanized fluorocarbon elastomer dispersed in a continuous phase matrix comprising a thermoplastic material. Park discloses a preferred embodiment of the material (col. 4, lines 56-64), which is the same composition as an embodiment Applicant discloses. Therefore, the material would also have the claimed tan-delta and loss to storage ratio. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the seal of Pataille with the material taught by Park to improve the seals performance and use.

3. Claim 23 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pataille in view of Park as applied to claim 18 above, and further in view of Johnston.

Johnston teaches art equivalent shapes including a smooth outer surface or bead. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the seal with a bead as such is an art equivalent.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 3673

Park '769, '337, '690, and '168 each teach the sealing material having the properties required by the claim. The references each share at least one common inventor, however, and might be overcome.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
